

William Meddick, Exhibition Judge

Our judge of awards, William Meddick, was the Executive Director of Milford Fine Arts Council for thirty years. A regional painter and instructor, Meddick holds a life-long dedication toward creating plein air landscapes, interiors, still life and portraits. "My subject matter is the daily reaction to my life and surroundings without the bells and whistles of glamorous places or styles." His work is exhibited throughout New England and can be found in both public and private collections. An award-winning artist, Meddick's work has been published in various magazines and art reviews in the US and Canada.
